

Job Opportunity: Program Coordinator – Indigenous & School Programs

Organization: Agriculture in the Classroom Saskatchewan (AITC-SK)

Location: Regina or Saskatoon, SK (with travel across Saskatchewan)

Position Type: Full-time, One-Year Term

About Us

Agriculture in the Classroom Saskatchewan (AITC-SK) is a registered charity dedicated to connecting kids and youth to agriculture through innovative, engaging, and hands-on learning experiences. We believe every student should understand where their food comes from and the role agriculture plays in their lives, communities, and the world.

The Role

AITC-SK is seeking a Program Coordinator – Indigenous & School Programs to lead and coordinate educational programming in schools across Saskatchewan, with a strong focus in First Nations communities. This role will also support AITC-SK's classroom programs for teachers and student's province-wide.

The Program Coordinator will:

- Coordinate and deliver classroom presentations on agriculture and food systems.
- Plan and facilitate teacher workshops to build capacity in delivering agriculture education.
- Support and coordinate community food farms and hands-on agriculture projects.
- Lead the planning and delivery of an Indigenous Youth Summit.
- Build and nurture respectful relationships in First Nations communities with schools, educators, and leaders.
- Support the delivery of general AITC-SK programs and initiatives in schools across Saskatchewan.
- Work collaboratively with the AITC-SK team to ensure programming is inclusive, culturally relevant, and impactful for all students.

Who We're Looking For

We are looking for a candidate who is:

- Ideally Indigenous (First Nations, Métis, or Inuit), bringing lived experience and cultural understanding to this role.
- Passionate about education, agriculture, food, and community building.

- An excellent communicator and relationship-builder, comfortable working with teachers, students, Elders, and diverse communities.
- Organized and dependable, with strong project coordination skills.
- Flexible and adaptable, able to manage multiple programs and travel to communities across the province.

Qualifications

- Experience working with schools, communities, or youth programming.
- Strong facilitation and presentation skills.
- Education degree is an asset, as is knowledge of agriculture, food systems, or environmental education (training can be provided).
- Valid driver's license and ability to travel within Saskatchewan.

Why Join Us?

- Make a meaningful difference by empowering youth with knowledge and skills.
- Be part of a passionate, supportive, and collaborative team.
- Flexible work environment with opportunities for growth and professional development.
- Competitive salary and benefits.
